

THE JOHN ALBERT HALL LECTURE SERIES

CRISIS, CONSCIENCE, COMMUNITY:

THE 500TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE REFORMATION

Five centuries ago, 95 theses penned by Martin Luther sparked a religious and political firestorm. This fall, join us for a special series of four lectures to reflect on the 500th anniversary of the Reformation and its enduring impact in our world today. The lectures are free and open to the public.

When: Thursday afternoons from 5:00 to 6:30 pm Where: David Turpin Building, Room A120

September 28

Martin Luther and the Ambiguity of Reform

Prof. Deanna A. Thompson,
Hamline University

October 12

*Reshuffling the Seen and the Unseen:
A Reappraisal of the Legacy of the Reformation*

Prof. Carlos M. N. Eire,
Yale University

November 9

Reformation and Canada:

Theme and Variations

Prof. Phyllis D. Airhart,
University of Toronto

November 30

Why the Reformation Still Matters

Prof. Brad S. Gregory,
University of Notre Dame

For more information visit:
[uvic.ca/research/centres/csrs/
events/john-albert-hall/index.php](http://uvic.ca/research/centres/csrs/events/john-albert-hall/index.php)

Co-sponsored by

University
of Victoria | Centre for Studies in Religion and Society

